We Need You!

Thank you to all of the parents and carers who have signed up so far to read with children each week. We still need more volunteers! We'll provide you with some basic training and all the support you will need. If you are able to offer us half an hour per week to read with a few children, please see Mrs Parrott or Mr Croft for more information.

Mrs Meaden would also welcome volunteers in the Reception classes (for all activities).

Birthdays

Any family who would like to celebrate their child's birthday with the class are invited to give a book for the class reading corner. This book will have a bookplate inserted with your child's name.

Please do not send in sweets, cakes, party bags etc.

We say farewell to Ryan (St Clare's) today and wish him well in his new school.
